

Sunday Streets SF 2022

Force Majeure Cancellation Policy & Wet Weather, Air Quality & COVID-19 Protocols

ABOUT

Sunday Streets is a program of the nonprofit Livable City, presented in partnership with SFMTA, SFDPH, and the City and County of San Francisco. Sunday Streets mission is to:

- Create temporary open space and recreational opportunities in neighborhoods most lacking
- Encourage active living and healthy eating
- Foster community building Inspire people to think differently about their streets as public spaces

This policy is part of Sunday Streets SF Program Guidelines, which were created to maintain public safety and the integrity of the program's mission. We thank you in advance for investing in San Francisco by participating at Sunday Streets SF and observing this policy along with all other policies as outlined in Sunday Streets Program Guidelines.

FORCE MAJEURE CANCELLATION POLICY

In the event of a cancellation due to Force Majeure, it is agreed that Livable City will not be held responsible for the cancellation. Force Majeure includes but is not limited to Acts of Nature such as heavy rain, flooding, extreme wind events or storms of any kind, unhealthy air quality, infectious disease, unstable ground, earthquakes or the negligence or decisions made by the City and County of San Francisco permitting agencies to alter or cancel a Sunday Streets SF event.

CANCELLATION PROTOCOLS

Updates about cancellations will be announced as outlined below. If no announcement is made, it is assumed the event will go forward as planned and all staff, exhibitors, vendors, and volunteers will arrive at the pre scheduled time.

Where To Find The Announcement

Livable City will announce cancellations on social media, SundayStreetsSF.com, LivableCity.org, and via the Livable City newsletter and direct emails to participating volunteers, exhibitors, and vendors. Livable City asks that questions regarding Sunday Streets SF cancellations be held to a minimum prior to an event.

Wet Weather

Sunday Streets is a sprinkle or shine event, meaning wet weather cancellations only occur when it is certain there will be a heavy, constant downpour that continues past 12:00 PM on the day of the event. Please note - due to the uncertainty of weather predictions, Sunday Streets SF events are rarely canceled before 12:00pm on the day of the event.

Air Quality

Livable City will cancel an event if the air-quality index (AQI) exceeds 150 by 12:00pm the day before the event AND the air quality is predicted to be similar on the following event-day.

COVID-19

Livable City is monitoring COVID-19 public health orders that are relevant to Sunday Streets and will cancel an event if:

1. Required to do so by the State or County Public Health Department; or
2. At any time current COVID-19 public health requirements and/or recommendations jeopardize the safe operations of Sunday Streets.
